

Name _____

Date _____

USING VALUE

When artists use value, they are using a variety of shades. This helps their artwork look more realistic, gives the composition more dimension to the viewer's eye.

Below's an example of a value scale. It shows gradated values from white, light gray, medium gray, and dark gray, to black. Using pressure to change the value. Fill in the blank set of value scales to use as a reference for your artwork.

