

How Living Things Are Organized

Name: _____ Date: _____

Complete the following sentences by filling in the missing terms

1. The smallest unit of structures and function in a living thing is called an _____
2. A tissue is a group of similar _____ working together
3. An organ is a group of different _____ working together to do a job
4. A group of different tissues working together to do a special job is called an _____
5. All the organ systems work together to allow the _____ to live
6. A living thing that carries out its own life activities is called an _____
7. The job of the circulatory system is to bring _____ and _____
8. Your skeleton is an example of an _____
9. Many organs working together to do a special job form an _____
10. Your heart and lungs are examples of _____