

Exercises

10. Complete the sentences by inserting the appropriate form of the verb in parentheses.
The teacher explained the lesson thoroughly.
11. Explain the technical points, especially control and design.
12. Explain the concept of control in the design process. The idea of control is controlling something that changes.
13. Explain the control system. Control means controlling something, like an engine, robot, or airplane.
14. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
15. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
16. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
17. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
18. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
19. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
20. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
21. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
22. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.
23. Explain the control system for aircraft. Control means controlling things with control, controlling things that change or move in a certain way. Control is controlling.