

The Coyote – Important Quotes

- Write down the quotations from the novel
- Write who said it and which theme it relates to ("Prejudice" or "Trust & Friendship").

"I helped him to his feet, and we went up the hill together, Timothy leaning on me for support for the first time."

"They are not the same as you, Phillip. They are different and they love differently."

"You are Phill-son, you do not need a' eyes now. You 'ave done without a' eyes what I couldn't do with my whole body."

"Timothy was taking the full force of the storm, sheltering me with his body."

"I remember smiling in the darkness. He felt neither black nor white."

"Something happened to me that day on the way." "I had begun to change."

"In Virginia I knew they'd always lived in their sections of town, and so it was."

"Young Urban, he an outrageous mule if you like, but 'ere I'm all you got."

"My mother was right, I thought. They had their place and we had ours. They were different."

"Why is 'e such a different colour, or flower is different colour? I true don't know, Phill-son, but I true talk 'bout his a' skin is a' same."

"Thank you Timothy. Take care of him. God, he was good to me."

"Then Timothy began weaving a rope that would stretch all the way down the hill to the bench and the pile." "The rope was for me."