

Story Planning Chart

Elements to Include in Your Story	Notes About Your Story
Who will your naughty animal be? What will he or she look like? What will he or she act like?
What will be the setting for your story? The ocean? A forest? The desert? Describe your setting.
What will your character do to get out of trouble? With whom or what is your character in trouble?
What will the consequences of being naughty be for your character?
What will your character learn from his or her experience? What will your character do to show other animals that he or she knows better now?
Pick three moments in your story to illustrate. Make some notes about what you will draw.	