

Subject Areas

Language Art

1. At the beginning of the school year, a first grade teacher assesses the students to determine their understanding of print book. This will best be demonstrated by the students...
  - a. Hearing and retelling the story
  - b. Showing where to start reading the text
  - c. Pointing and matching one- to-one
  - d. Indicating the space between words

2. Mrs. Rivera's kindergarten class asked her to write their favorite poem. She writes each phrase or sentence the child dictates. She directs their attention to the beginning and ending of each line as she writes and then orderly repeats the dictation to reinforce...
  - a. Letter-learned knowledge
  - b. Left to right writing knowledge
  - c. Indication of sentence parts
  - d. Letter-sound knowledge

3. When students dictate stories reread their stories then practice the words on flash cards, the teacher is using...
  - a. The writing process
  - b. Language experience approach
  - c. Linguistic approach
  - d. The language development approach

4. A teacher wants to enlist the assistance of her students' reading performance. The most effective way to involve the parents is to...
  - a. Parent-child pair reading
  - b. Manuscript writing kits
  - c. Send letter to parents
  - d. Parent-child kits

5. A teacher read numerous word picture book to and with her students. This activity primarily promote the development of ...
  - a. Comprehension
  - b. Phonological awareness
  - c. Story structure
  - d. Structural analysis

6. Which word recognition method would be most effective for teaching the following words? Mail man, fire place, anchor woman...
  - a. Sight words
  - b. Contextual analysis
  - c. Structural analysis