Commas, Ellipses, Dash (Choosing Part 1 / L.8.2a)
A comma is used to separate and enclose phrases and clauses. (,) An ellipsis indicates an omission from a direct quotation.() A dash emphasizes certain material within a sentence. (-)
Directions: For each sentence below, place a comma, ellipses of dash to correctly complete each sentence.
Example A: John said, "forgive my guilt you will be thanked." Answer: John said, "forgive my guilt you will be thanked."
1. I would suggest or should I say argue that this must change.
2. In conclusion I am very proud of you.
3. Dan explained, "wash the dishes someday you will learn."
4. At the end we all agreed on which road to take.
5. Three leaders even new members agreed.
6. Yes you can attend my birthday party.
7. Rachel said, "I saw a comet rise it will arrive."

Date: _____

Name: _____