

Events Leading Up To The War: Complete the organizer explaining the main events leading up to the Revolutionary War. [Organizer Provided]	Changes Over Time Fully explain how war has evolved since the American Revolution. Include specific examples, as well as reasons for the changes.	A Land of the Free? Colonists fought in the American Revolution for freedom, but were British actually enslaved? Offer your opinion and justify by including factual examples.
Worth the Risk? Discuss the reasons why people wanted to travel to the new colonies. Would you have taken the trip, knowing that a deadly outcome was possible? Explain.	Compare and Contrast Any 2 people, groups of people, or events of your choice. [Organizer Provided]	A Day in the Life Imagine that you are a colonist in the New England, Middle, or Southern Colonies. Tell which colony you live in, and then write a journal entry that describes your daily life. Include a picture.
What Happened First? Create a timeline that includes the major events that occurred between the time that America was "discovered" and the time that they won the American Revolution.	Key Players There were many key players, or important people, during the time of the American Revolution. Choose one person and explain his or her importance.	Religious Causes and Effect Create a religious organizer that includes the events that caused the Revolutionary War. Create a second religious organizer that includes the results, or effects of the war.
Boston Tea Party Create an artistic representation of the Boston Tea Party. Explain the significance of this historic event.	Betsy Ross's Flag Draw and explain the different elements of the Betsy Ross flag. How has the flag evolved over time? What does the American flag represent, and why do Americans show respect and pledge allegiance to the flag?	Hypocritical? Many early colonists came to the Americas for freedom of religion and to practice Christianity. They were tired of the King, telling them what to believe, yet when they arrived, they found many to adopt the Christian faith. A hypocrite is a person who says one thing, but does another. Do you think the early colonists were hypocrites?