

Compound sentence exercise

Join the pairs of simple sentences (main-clauses) together to make a compound sentence. Choose carefully which of the FANBOYS conjunctions you will use. For numbers 9 and 10, make up two of your own.

For And Nor But Or Yet So

1. Ryan went to the shops. He bought some sweets.
2. I enjoy comics. I enjoy funny stories.
3. James loves playing football. He doesn't like to swim.
4. Anita is great at all sports. She is unable to swim.
5. You didn't eat your peas. You didn't finish your beans.
6. You must remember your password. You cannot log in.
7. The computer crashed. I lost all of my work.
8. Marcus walked slowly. He had hurt his leg.
9. *
10. *

Compound sentence exercise

Join the pairs of simple sentences (main-clauses) together to make a compound sentence. Choose carefully which of the FANBOYS conjunctions you will use. For numbers 9 and 10, make up two of your own.

For And Nor But Or Yet So

1. Ryan went to the shops. He bought some sweets.
2. I enjoy comics. I enjoy funny stories.
3. James loves playing football. He doesn't like to swim.
4. Anita is great at all sports. She is unable to swim.
5. You didn't eat your peas. You didn't finish your beans.
6. You must remember your password. You cannot log in.
7. The computer crashed. I lost all of my work.
8. Marcus walked slowly. He had hurt his leg.
9. *
10. *