

The Crucible

Acts One and Two

Name _____

Character Identification / Matching

- | | | |
|---------------------|-----------------|------------------|
| A. Tituba | D. John Proctor | G. Hale |
| B. Parris | E. Giles Corey | H. Mary Warren |
| C. Abigail Williams | F. Ann Putnam | I. Betty Parris |
| | | J. Francis Nurse |

- ____ 1. a sensible man who recognizes hypocrisy; the protagonist of the play
- ____ 2. lost seven babies at birth; mother to Ruth, wife to Thomas
- ____ 3. a minister who comes from Beverly to Salem
- ____ 4. a slave from Barbados who conjures spirits
- ____ 5. the eighty-three year old person who is always accused when something goes wrong
- ____ 6. Harvard-educated Salem minister
- ____ 7. cannot eat or talk; is under a spell or pretending to be
- ____ 8. accuses John Proctor of being in love with her
- ____ 9. currently a servant in the Proctor household; naïve subservient young girl
- ____ 10. involved in a land war; others resented his rise in social status and his successful children; husband to Rebecca

Multiple Choice

- ____ 11. At the beginning of Act 1, Parris is angry with Abigail because
 - a) she has stolen money from his wallet,
 - b) her dismissal from the Proctors' household has caused him embarrassment,
 - c) he caught her in an adulterous act with John Proctor,
 - d) she admitted that she is a witch.

- ____ 12. When his daughter goes into an apparent trance, Parris refuses to leap to the conclusion that witchcraft is to blame because
 - a) witches do not exist,
 - b) he fears his congregation will drive him out of Salem due to corruption in his house,
 - c) his daughter is too sweet a child to have ever participated in conjuring spirits,
 - d) he can trust his daughter when she is with Abigail.

- ____ 13. Learning that Hale has been summoned, Rebecca Nurse expresses
 - a) doubts about the search for loose spirits,
 - b) satisfaction that an expert has been consulted,
 - c) fear that she herself will be accused of witchcraft,
 - d) eagerness to see Betty fly.

- ____ 14. Before her arrest, Elizabeth Proctor believes that her husband
 - a) no longer has feelings for Abigail,
 - b) hates Abigail,