

Page 10 of 10

National Parks

Directions: Read the passage below about President Theodore Roosevelt. Then, choose one National Park to read about. Write a short paragraph about the park.

The National Parks are enjoy today one, in large part, thanks to President Theodore Roosevelt. While in office during the years 1901 - 1909, President Roosevelt established five National Parks, adding to the few that were already in existence. He continued his work for more national Parks and Monuments throughout his life.

President Roosevelt was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed hunting at the early age of 12. His love for conservation was a driving force throughout his