

Confronting Tough Problems with Creative Thinking

How often do you find yourself stuck on a problem? Do you ever feel that you've tried every possible solution and still can't find a way to solve it? Creative thinking can help you find a way to solve it.

Directions

Read each problem carefully. Use the hints to help you think of a creative solution. Write your solution in the space provided.

1. You have a large amount of water and a small amount of water. How can you measure the small amount of water?

Hint:

Hint:

Hint:

Hint:

2. You have a large amount of water and a small amount of water. How can you measure the small amount of water?

Answers

1. You can measure the small amount of water by using the large amount of water to fill the small amount of water.