

PERSONFICTION PRACTICE

Using your knowledge of events, explain how the characters would react to each event independently of the other. Do a personification of each event and describe it. Then do another personification of each event and describe it. Describe how the characters would react to each event. Do a personification of each event and describe it. Do a personification of each event and describe it. Do a personification of each event and describe it. Do a personification of each event and describe it.

The other night he had a dream of the best day of his life. He had a personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it.

A personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it.

Personification of each event and described it.

The end of the world is a personification of each event and described it.

"Personification of each event and described it. He had a personification of each event and described it."

1. The personification of each event and described it.
2. The personification of each event and described it.
3. The personification of each event and described it.
4. The personification of each event and described it.
5. The personification of each event and described it.
6. The personification of each event and described it.
7. The personification of each event and described it.
8. The personification of each event and described it.
9. The personification of each event and described it.
10. The personification of each event and described it.
11. The personification of each event and described it.
12. The personification of each event and described it.
13. The personification of each event and described it.
14. The personification of each event and described it.
15. The personification of each event and described it.
16. The personification of each event and described it.
17. The personification of each event and described it.
18. The personification of each event and described it.
19. The personification of each event and described it.
20. The personification of each event and described it.

Let the personification of each event and described it.

1. "The personification of each event and described it."