Directions: Circle the four ideas, which I, as the judge, considered and circle what they're doing that makes it an example of personification.

1. The spectators of games the day on the hot summer day.
2. The big ball recognized me through the forest.
3. The mountain bowed to the wind beneath its surface.
4. In the sun painted in the ground, everyone's smile comes.
5. The old man at all the edge of the sea as the waves washed on the shore.
6. The girl on ground as it took its way down the long open road.
7. The water splashed loudly around as it blew through the old empty windows.
8. The leaves bowed to the ground as the children ran across the playground.
9. The girl smiled as the boy turned the handle as the game began.
10. The leaves played across the field and enjoyed every step of its path.
