

SUN

Rain falls onto the soil, flows into the rivers or seeps into the soil

Rain falls directly into rivers, dams or the oceans

Condensation forms clouds

Surface water

Evaporation

Some rain seeps into the soil and becomes part of the ground water supply

Ground water may feed into rivers or will eventually lead into the sea