

Name: _____

Do You Know Your Prepositions?

A preposition sits before a noun (or a pronoun) to show the noun's relationship to another noun in the sentence. A preposition helps to tell more about the noun.

Directions: Circle the preposition in each sentence. Think about what the preposition is doing to give you more information.

1. My sister and I walked through the large cave opening.
2. Janice placed the turkey between the cranberry sauce and the mashed potatoes.
3. Every night, I brush my teeth before my sister does.
4. John played Minecraft during the snowstorm.
5. Last night, we had to drive around the town looking for our lost dog.
6. Sheila hid the Christmas gift below the hutch.
7. Barbara placed the pumpkin pie inside the oven to bake.
8. Lucy saw her cousins Fred and Ethel at the mall.
9. Our sled flew over the hill of snow and past the icy lake.
10. Pieme dropped the bag of laundry down the chute.