

Name _____ Planning sheet: creative writing

It's A Turkey's Life

Have you ever wondered what a turkey would say if it could talk and tell you a little bit about itself? Imagine that the turkey below had human qualities. Fill in each blank with information about the turkey. Then dress the turkey according to his or her character, adding creative details. For example, if your turkey likes sports, you may show him or her holding a basketball and wearing sneakers.

Name:	_____
Nickname:	_____
Address:	_____
Place of birth:	_____
Family members:	_____
Job description:	_____
Pets:	_____
Favorite TV show:	_____
Favorite hobby/sport:	_____
Favorite snack food:	_____
Favorite song:	_____
Favorite book:	_____
Favorite holiday:	_____

Bonus-Bonus: On another sheet of paper, write a story about the turkey you've described above.

©The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. | www.mheducation.com | October 2009

Help To The Teacher: Supply each student with a pencil, markers or colored pencils, scissors, glue, and a sheet of 8" x 12" construction paper. After each student completes the activity, have him cut out the turkey and description paper. Then direct each student to glue his outputs to the sheet of construction paper. Post each student's work on a wall or bulletin board titled "It's A Turkey's Life."