

III. Underline the complete subject.

1. Jason is headed for the piano.
2. Her brother and step-sister are at a party.
3. Correct grammar is important to good writing.
4. We may seldom notice the differences and how points off we receive.
5. Jim is sure he's been favorite band-of-moms.

IV. Underline the complete predicate.

1. Hernandez is busily sweeping the floor off his porch.
2. Jim and I have always enjoyed walking in the park, and back.
3. She stopped just outside the big oak at Broad.
4. It never provided you with gardens.
5. How awful will Bill's haircut look from that motorcycle.

VI. Underline the direct object.