

The Agounaphie de "is" or the possessive case?

"is" = possessive case

True or false? Put an X in the box which tells the meaning of the is.

Statement	is = is	is = possessive case
1. She's here.	X
2. The books are mine.
3. The dog's head is on the table.
4. She's a student, isn't she?
5. That's a daughter of yours.
6. This is my book.
7. It's on the table.
8. Jennifer's husband bought a book.
9. The computer is outside.
10. I am not my best friend.
11. She's a doctor.
12. The students paid for the bus.
13. Who's there?
14. Jennifer's husband bought a book.		