

Source Credibility Worksheet

Name _____ Period _____

For each of your sources, fill out the following information evaluating the credibility of the information. When writing a research paper, it is imperative that you have credible sources of information! (If you find that one or more of your sources doesn't seem to be credible, replace them!)

Source: (author/title/publisher)

What is the article/book about?

Who is the author? What makes them qualified to write about the topic? (If there is no author, how can you tell where the information comes from?)

Does the author/article seem to have a bias? (Consider who they work for.)

How do you expect to use this source?

Source: (author/title/publisher)

What is the article/book about?

Who is the author? What makes them qualified to write about the topic? (If there is no author, how can you tell where the information comes from?)