

2. Non-differentiable English Selected word analysis

Before you start writing, read the whole question paper carefully, including the answer sheet of the questions. Always write the first question first, because you will be writing the answer with the available help of the question in question 2. (This is because you will be writing the answer in English.)

Question 1

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Question 2

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Question 3

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Question 4

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)

Write a letter to your friend about the importance of learning English. (You may use the points given in the question, but you need not use all.)