

True or False Literacy Statements Worksheet

Name _____

Date _____

Are these statements true or false? Tick your answer

1. Adverts are probably not completely factual.

True False

2. Science fiction is true as it is based on science.

True False

3. Information found on a website is always reliable.

True False

4. Adverts, brochures and leaflets often exaggerate positive points and fail to mention any negative ones.

True False

5. Similes and metaphors are forms of punctuation.

True False

6. Newspaper articles are factual and always completely true.

True False

7. Information found on someone's homepage site is as reliable as the information found on a well known encyclopedia.

True False

8. A simile is when something is described by comparing it to another thing.

True False

9. Good non-fiction enables the reader to briefly understand the story just by scanning the headlines and pictures.

True False