

Model Verbs for Action

Instructions: Please complete writing Chicago to the President and the writing teacher at what he or she should do to. Give them information about things that they could, should, and must do during their visit.

Example: I will really like to see the White House, visit the museums, and be in spending the weekend and things.

He could see some of Chicago's famous buildings.

He should visit the Field Museum.

He must see some of Chicago's famous parks, like Grant Park and the lakefront.

1. Kelly is excited to see the city of Chicago from the inside. She has many more things and things she needs.

She could _____

She should _____

She must _____

2. Kelly is very excited to see the city of Chicago from the inside. She has many more things and things she needs.

She could _____

She should _____

She must _____

3. Kelly is very excited to see the city of Chicago from the inside. She has many more things and things she needs.

She could _____

She should _____

She must _____

4. Kelly is very excited to see the city of Chicago from the inside. She has many more things and things she needs.

She could _____

She should _____

She must _____