

Name: _____

Date: _____

Commonly Confused Pronouns (Whose or Who's Part 2)

A pronoun is a word that may take the place of one or more nouns.

Whose is a possessive noun that shows ownership.

Who's is a contraction that stands for "who is."

Directions: Read each sentence below. Circle the pronoun that best completes each sentence.

Example A: (Who's / Whose) going to the baseball game tonight?

Answer: Who's

1. When I sell my furniture (who's / whose) going to take it away?
2. (Who's / Whose) the most improved in the class?
3. I can tell exactly (who's / whose) studying and (who's / whose) not.
4. (Who's / Whose) coffee is that sitting on the table?
5. (Who's / Whose) money is that sitting on the chair?
6. I can't tell (who's / whose) instrument that is.
7. (Who's / Whose) ready to watch the movie tonight?