

7th Grade Language Arts Lesson Plans
 Week of January 19-22
 Garrett, Garcia, Klump, Matlock

MON	No School Student Holiday
TUES TEKS 7.17 7.18C 7.18D 7.18H 7.19C	Objective: The student will practice using depth in writing to increase the understanding and interest for the reader. The student will: 1. Warm-up-TAKS practice warm-up Objective 5 2. Adding Depth to Writing revising our SFA 3. Write Final Draft or Revised Paper	Distribute Revising Homework
WED TEKS 7.10C 7.10D 7.10H 7.12J 7.12G 7.12K	Objective: The student will read and distinguish between literal and figurative meaning; The student will connect to personal experience and prior knowledge The student will: 1. Warm-up 2. Preview the story-Talk about pulling pranks. What is the harshest punishment you ever received? Discuss the use of dialect used throughout the story 3. Begin reading "Boy: Tales from Childhood" on page 533 4. As we are reading, have students pick out the author's use of exaggeration and embellishment.
THURS TEKS 7.10C 7.10D 7.10H 7.12J 7.12G 7.12K	Objective: The student will read and distinguish between literal and figurative meaning; The student will connect to personal experience and prior knowledge The student will: 1. Warm-up 2. Continue reading "Boy: Tales from Childhood" on page 533 3. As we are reading, have students pick out the author's use of exaggeration and embellishment.	Revising HW due
FRI TEKS 7.10C 7.10D 7.10H 7.12J 7.12G	Objective: The student will read and distinguish between literal and figurative meaning; The student will connect to personal experience and prior knowledge The student will: 1. Warm-up 2. Continue reading "Boy: Tales from Childhood" on page 533	