

Point of View Quiz

Part 1 - Examples

Directions: read each text and determine the narrator's point of view.

1. "Do you love candy?" I asked my friend Benita. I always make friends with other people.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person
2. To Make French Toast: First, take out a skillet to cook and turn the stove on low. Second, you will melt the butter in the pan and stir it with a spatula. Third, heat the eggs. Fourth, lay the bread, white or wheat, on both sides in the eggs. Fifth, oil the bread on top of butter for 30 seconds and then turn over. Now you have a slice of French toast, repeat.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person
3. Jesse had felt sad all day. Jesse thought and thought about his situation and he thought to himself. Carol had got separated together. Maria came in the door and asked what was wrong. He told her. Maria frowned. She felt as if she were being abandoned by everyone.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person
4. We are not as close as we once were, at least not since the thing happened. We were sitting in science class when I decided to look at her notebook. I noticed that she wasn't taking notes.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person
5. Some kids might think I said, "I love squirrels," but really she loved them. Carol said, "They smell," but really, she loved them too. Both of them thought that squirrels were pretty cute.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person
6. How to Properly Clean Your Dish: First, top a CD holder from your neighborhood Christmas store. If you want to clean your CD for free instead, get a Q-tip or soft cloth. Use alcohol or window cleaner and wipe up and down applying light pressure as needed.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person
7. When I went to the store, I witnessed a girl crying on the street and I took a closer look and saw it was my friend. I walked to where she was and asked her what was wrong. She said, "Family problems." Being a good friend, I told her to call me later if she wanted to talk about it.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person
8. Jesse thought and she thought: How can I make people notice me? Then, Jesse's two best friends came in the kitchen and asked Jesse to make a batch of cookies for their class. She did, and the next day at the bake sale, lots of children and parents were buying her cookies.
a) First Person                      b) Second Person                      c) Third Person