

Patterson High School Lesson Plans

Teacher: T. Shirey

Subject: English IV

Blocks: 2nd and 3rd blocks

Date: 9/8/09-9/11/09

Day/ Date	GLE's/ Objectives	Min.	Describe teacher and student activities	Resources/ LCC Reference	School Improvement Plan (Daily CRI, Literacy Strategies, Pre-tests, Rubrics, Anticipation Guides, etc.)
Tuesday, September 8, 2009	21-23 -- apply standard rules of sentence formation, usage, mechanics, and punctuation 24 -- use spelling resources 5 -- analyze the impact of historical periods on literature (political, religious, social influences) 25 -- use standard English when speaking in class 26a -- deliver informational reports in class 29 -- deliver class presentations 31 -- deliver oral presentations analyzing information	10 min.  15 min.  70 min.	1. Students will use standard mechanics, usage and grammar rules to edit sentences. (MUGS Set 4: Focus on Punctuation)  2. Students will read the following silently: p. 20 The Norman Conquest , p. 24-26 The Medieval Period Historical Context and Cultural Influences .  3. Students will complete their presentations. Students will present their Powerpoint presentations on the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>William the Conqueror</li> <li>Feudalism</li> <li>Social Classes</li> <li>Castles in England</li> <li>Thomas A Becket</li> </ul> Class members will take notes as needed.  Homework: Novel choices and Renaissance fair money ($15) due Wednesday.	1. Promethean board and student-made Powerpoints 2. Powerpoint rubrics 3. MUGS Set 4 Promethean Flipchart 4. MUGS Set 4 sentences  Modified LCC Activity 8, Unit 2 A Look at the World of the Middle Ages p. 31	Constructed Response Item: What were two of the most interesting facts you learned in your studies of the Middle ages?  Literacy Strategy: Modified Professor Know-It-Alls
Wednesday, Sept. 9, 2009	21-23 -- apply standard rules of sentence formation, usage, mechanics, and punctuation 24 -- use spelling resources	20 min.	1. Students will use standard mechanics, usage and grammar rules to edit sentences. (MUGS Set 3: Focus on Punctuation)		