SPANISH - ENGLISH VOCABULARY

A. We use many words in English that come from Spanish. You probably already know some of these.

Animals: amarrillo, gordo
Buildings: escuela, plaza
Clothing: sombrero, chaleco
Expressions: ¡de, adios!
Foods: salsa, tortilla
Months: los meses, abril
Geography: mesa, canyon
Weather: huracán, torнадо
Miscellaneous: maraca, tambo
People: amigo, familia
Place names: Seattle, Los Angeles, Colorado, Nevada
Think of two more cognates and add them to this list.

B. We call Spanish a Romance language because it comes from Latin, the language of the Romans. Latin had a great influence on English too, so there are many words in Spanish that look another sound alike to English words. These are called cognates. Take advantage of this!
