

September 29, 2009

Dear Students,

Insert your handwriting specimen in the box and write your name in that pencil box right below. You will have a total of three weeks to complete this.

Get the background on the story (optional). The events you will follow are "book of the story". To complete the work you will need to create a "background" which serves as your story presentation. This should be done in a separate sheet of paper. Put the events together with story in your

Directions:

Read: Open and take the class of the book chapter. Write your name on the back of the book.

Character Traits: Open and take the selling effects and when the story takes place.

Background: Write 1-2 sentences in your handwriting that explain the main problem of the story.

Main Action: Write 1-2 sentences of what happened in the story. And how each leads to the problem/main character. (1-2 lines, 100-150 words)

Lead Action: Write 1-2 sentences about the main character.

Cliff: Write 1-2 sentences about the character must do in the way to solve the main problem.

Lead Leg: Write what the character does to solve the problem.

End: Write 1-2 sentences about the book's main point.

All books completed from the chapter book form, and make at least 10 pages.

Philly Reading
Mrs. Green

P.S. Your book report is due Friday, October 30, 2009!

Please read, cut, sign and return by Friday October 30!

I have read the requirements for the book report and understand my child's responsibility. I am aware that the student's name is required.

Student's name: _____

Parent's signature: _____