

1. Write the SUBJECT and OBJECT pronouns. Then use them in the following activities.

Subject:

Object:

2a. Read about Elsa and her family. Complete the text with the SUBJECT PRONOUNS.

Hi! My name's Elsa and live in Canada.'ve got one brother and one sister. are called Pete and Mike. My mother works in a bank. is an economist. My father works in a big company. works from Mondays to Saturdays. His company makes mobile phones, and is in the city centre. are a normal family.

2b. Complete this text with the OBJECT PRONOUNS.

Every Saturday morning my father washes his car in the garage. I usually help to wash Then, I go to the supermarket with my parents. I help with the shopping for the week, and they give some money for helping. Later, in the evening I can go to the karaoke with my friend Sandra. I like singing with, because she is not shy. We take our favourite music with, and we play in the karaoke. We sometimes invite some friends and we sing with on the stage.

2c. Another short text. Write the SUBJECT or OBJECT pronouns in the gaps.

Hello! My name's Raúl. live in Málaga.
..... study in the School Rosario Moreno. is a very big school. There are many students, are boys and girls together. There are also many classrooms, and playground areas.
..... have got many friends at school, but Lola is my best friend. is always good to and I really like to be with Our teachers are nice, but always give a lot of homework to do. Have got good friends at your school? And the teachers, are good?

2d. Write the SUBJECT or OBJECT pronouns in the gaps.

My friend Dave lives in the USA, but is coming to Britain soon. I am going to meet at the airport next Sunday. His wife and children are coming, too. I am going to take to Oxford. My wife, Kathie, wants to buy some new clothes, so I am going to take to London.
My friend and his family will be OK. are going to travel to Scotland. Mary and the children are going to visit Loch Ness. want to see the monster. People say you can see in the surface of the lake!! Can believe?
Dave's parents live in Glasgow, so is going to visit for one or two days.