

Circle the adjectives in each sentence. Remember, an adjective describes a person, place, or thing.

Example: The black desk belongs to the old man.

In this sentence, black describes the desk, which is a thing, and old describes man, a person.

1. The big cat sat down.
2. The student read a long story.
3. The new class starts tomorrow.
4. Robert threw red buttons in the trash can.
5. Ahmed wrote a wonderful story.
6. The fast cat ate quickly.
7. She had a hard test today.
8. They ate a large pizza.
9. He walked in a long line.
10. She came for the late party.
11. I loved the purple coat she was wearing, and said, "Bark! Bark! Bark!"
12. I did not touch the cold handle.
13. My daddy drove the new car to school.
14. The class Miguel had is very small.
15. She kept her money in her left pocket.