

High School Teacher Resume

Marc S. Frank

382 Lunetta Street

Tampa,

FL 33614

Phone no.- 941-257-8540

Email address- MarcSFrank@teleworm.com

Professional Goal

Look for new challenges in the practice of physics and related syllabus at high school education level.

Educational Background

- Free State University, Boston: acquired Masters Degree in secondary education in the year of 1990, physics as the major subject.
- New York State University, New York: acquired Bachelor Degree in Physical Mathematics in the year of 1987.
- Successful candidate of the Certificate Course of Secondary Education, Boston.

Professional Background

1998 to present date: Free State Educational Chairman, Physics Department In this place my responsibilities were such as follows

- With the due responsibilities as physics instructor, provided the necessary direction to the Physics Evaluation Commission for taking the affiliation by the National Association of Schools and Colleges.
- Researched and presented the evaluate reports to affiliation board. The reports include the details of present and future goals and program with thorough professional development measures.
- Member of the selection committee for selecting and approving all departmental texts with extended course metaphors as well as revaluating the stuffs.

1994 to 1998: Senior physics secondary teacher of Washington Public Secondary School.

- Teach the nine to twelve levels in vectors, light and electronics and practical physics.
- Worked as a member of the syllabus development committee and did lesson plans with thorough text selection.
- Basketball coach and athletic trainer for sports team comprising with football, baseball and athletics.