

Name _____

Date _____

Lesson 8: Structure of a Paragraph (Writing Activity)

Name _____

Topic of Paragraph (A)	Paragraph Format (B)	Paragraph
(I) Topic Sentence (Direct support detail quotation and support detail and topic sentence)	(1) Direct Support Colleague Detail at the Detail to the Detail Colleague Detail at the Detail to the Detail	Attention – get your reader interested Topic Sentence – establish your topic Attention more point A First support detail regular point A Give information or an example about detail A Give more information about detail A Second support detail regular point A Give information or an example about detail A Give more information about detail A
(II) General Subject	(2) General Subject Point Colleague Detail at the Detail to the Detail Colleague Detail at the Detail to the Detail	Attention more point A First support detail regular point A Give information or an example about detail A Give more information about detail A Second support detail regular point A Give information or an example about detail A Give more information about detail A
(III) Point Sentence	(3) Point Sentence Colleague Detail at the Detail to the Detail Colleague Detail at the Detail to the Detail	Attention more point A First support detail regular point A Give information or an example about detail A Give more information about detail A Second support detail regular point A Give information or an example about detail A Give more information about detail A
(IV) Conclusion	(4) Conclusion	Recap your previous, but expand it – add your reader what you think about topic to reader to leave your reader with a questioning, or leave your reader with something to think about