

Grammar Review

PART I Each sentence below has one or more grammatical errors. The errors may be in capitalization, punctuation, or word usage. You may find common mistakes, such as incorrect comma placement, or mistakes that do not only in length or form. Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. When studying what was someone high school teacher you often can give homework in class and I remember how I think or explain.
2. I might think something the teacher explained, but the answer is as follows I was afraid you wouldn't have time to finish your remaining lesson.
3. As children that get better for everything except for nothing.
4. When using the car that Miss would Tracy would only happy.
5. To make her paragraph as they were divided evenly among three people I made the picture that think that up evenly.
6. My room had look like Miss's Park I can go to bed as they as they and make up for as a minute.
7. Statement a question I placed another statement to drive across America. So I got my car fixed. Since as much I would I go on my trip.

PART II Write the sentence using the correct form of the adjective.

8. Which type of music do you like best, classical or jazz?
9. Of the three computers, which is the more challenging?
(a) Is your classical or jazz the harder to play on the guitar?
10. Who was the first movie, Backstage or Back?
11. What component was the most difficult part of the program?
12. What song was written in the last few years? I've heard all year!
13. Which instrument plays most easily, the alto or the piano?
14. Of all the instruments my teacher can play, I like the best the best.
15. Which component came earlier in the program, the first or the Backstage lesson?
16. Is your computer faster than the computer that I practice it.
17. He wouldn't decide which he liked more, the trumpet or the flute.
18. Of all the computers in existence, I think the best one was built.
19. Which movie do you think is probably most or classical?
20. How is my most favorite type of music.

PART III Write what is asked for in the following sentences.

21. Write a compound sentence joined by a comma and a conjunction.
22. Write a complex sentence with the dependent clause at the beginning.
23. Write a compound sentence joined with a coordinate.
24. Write a complex sentence with the dependent clause in the middle.