

Year	Notes
1870-1875: Disaster	A large forest fire swept through the forests which was described as the 1870-1875 forest disaster. All the trees and logs. The forest was almost entirely lost.
1875-1880: Disaster	After the 1875-1880 forest disaster, the forest was almost entirely lost. The 1875-1880 forest disaster swept through the forest and destroyed the forest and logging buildings. The forest and logging buildings were almost entirely lost.
1880-1885: Disaster	Large forest fire swept through the forests which was described as the 1880-1885 forest disaster. The forest was almost entirely lost.
1885-1890: Disaster	Large forest fire swept through the forests which was described as the 1885-1890 forest disaster. All the trees and logs. The forest was almost entirely lost.
1890-1895: Disaster	Large forest fire swept through the forests which was described as the 1890-1895 forest disaster. The forest was almost entirely lost.
1895-1900: Disaster	Large forest fire swept through the forests which was described as the 1895-1900 forest disaster. The forest was almost entirely lost.
1900-1905: Disaster	Large forest fire swept through the forests which was described as the 1900-1905 forest disaster. The forest was almost entirely lost.
1905-1910: Disaster	Large forest fire swept through the forests which was described as the 1905-1910 forest disaster. The forest was almost entirely lost.

1910-1915: Disaster
1915-1920: Disaster
1920-1925: Disaster
1925-1930: Disaster

1930-1935: Disaster
1935-1940: Disaster
1940-1945: Disaster
1945-1950: Disaster