

Animals That Live In Shells Worksheet

| Draw the Animals   | Write the name of the Animal. | Type of AnimalM=MolluskC=Crustacean | How many shells does it have? | Does it have a head? | How many legs or feet does it have? | Does it have a backbone? |
|--|-------------------------------|---|-------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------|
|  scallops  |                               |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |
|  clams     |                               |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |
|  oysters   |                               |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |
|  snails    |                               |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |
|  | Whelk                         |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |
|  | Conch                         |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |
|  octopus |                               |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |
|  | Squid                         |   |                               |                      |                                     |                          |