

Long Vowelsold, ost, oll

Name _____

When special consonant letters (ld, st, ll) follow o, the o will usually have the long sound.oldgoldsoldostmostpostollrolltollHe with the most gold must pay
the toll.Choose the correct old word.

1. The man (told, hold) us where to go.
2. Dad has a (gold, fold) watch.
3. Mom lets me (hold, sold) the baby.
4. The lady had to (gold, scold) the dog.
5. It is time to (fold, sold) the sheets.

gold

Choose the correct ost word.

1. You can be the (most, host) of the party.
2. He will bang the (post, most) into the ground.
3. Sue will (most, post) a notice for the sale.

Choose the correct oll word.

1. We pay a (toll, roll) to cross the bridge.
2. May I have butter for the (poll, roll)?
3. Bill wants to (poll, roll) down the hill.

roll