edogaesesea Padoda Padoda

Plural possessive nouns are plural nouns (women, girls) that show ownership of something.

This is done in two ways.

With an apostrophe (') when the plural noun ends in s.

girls' dresses horses' hooves fairies' wings

With an apostrophe (') when the plural noun does not end in an 5.

women's hats sheep's wool fish's scales