

MEMBER ASSOCIATION MEMBERS

Name: _____ Date: _____

To, Do and Two

The words to, do and two sound the same, but they have different meanings.

- To: This shows if things are correct.
Mother will be to in the position.
- Do: I want to do my homework.
It is do homework in the school.
- Two: My class has two school bags.

Match the sentences and write the correct word (to, do or two) in the blank.

1. My homework is _____ right now.
2. The teacher reads stories _____ her class regularly.
3. We will go _____ the library tomorrow.
4. I completed the work _____.
5. Please take the message _____ the office.
6. I do not _____ with today.
7. I finished that book _____.
8. The store is _____, happy _____, sorry for regret.
9. The cat caught a rat _____ the better to eat it.
10. Please take the children _____ the playground.
11. We will go to the garden _____ to the park.
12. The teacher _____ the class.
13. Will you have some pie and tea _____?
14. There are _____ three buses and one on Monday _____.
15. I am growing an herb in the garden and getting _____ well.
16. Our cat likes _____ sitting on the roof.
17. I am interested in the book _____ well.
18. The garden is full of flowers _____.
19. We have always had our school _____.