

Context Clues Worksheet

---

Directions: Below are several sentences, all of which contain context clues. Your job is to indicate which type of context clue is being used. Also, you must underline the context clue. The target word is in bold.

---

1. The boisterous students, so loud and noisy, are bothering everyone in the room.
a. Type of context clue: _____

2. Jenny is so rambunctious, unlike her brother who is calm and behaved.
a. Type of context clue: _____

3. This city is desolate, like a dry desert in the middle of the summer.
a. Type of context clue: _____

4. The dictator, the person that rules a country by military force, is killing everyone.
a. Type of context clue: _____

5. He gets pessimistic about his job when his boss answers no to every question he asks.
a. Type of context clue: _____

6. Monkeys are so unpredictable, jumping around everywhere in no particular pattern.
a. Type of context clue: _____

7. Children are reliant on their parents, not being able to do a thing on their own.
a. Type of context clue: _____

8. Some people say humans are barbarous while dogs are quite gentle and tamed.
a. Type of context clue: _____

9. Studying for a test is tedious, like having to brush our teeth 10 times a day!
a. Type of context clue: _____

10. Chivalry is dead because men never open doors for ladies or pull chairs out for them.
a. Type of context clue: _____