Homophones
Choose 8 more sets of homophones that you think will be important to learn the meaning and spelling of for your personal writing.
I. who's & whose
2. it's &amp; its
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
Assignments
Day I - Write each homophone and its definition.
Day 2 – Write each word in a separate sentence. Each sentence must be at least seven words. Each homophone must be underlined.
Day 3 – Write a paragraph using 15 different homophones on your list. The paragraph must have a topic sentence, at least 5 detailed sentences and a conclusion sentence. Each homophone must be underlined.

____ Date ____

www.sightwordsgame.com

Day 5 - Test: Write a silly story using the first 4 homophones on the above list and at least one of each homophone pair/group of your personal homophones.

Day 4 - Write another paragraph using the same criteria as day 3.