

Julius Caesar Lecture Notes Act III

Scene I

Fgs. 40-42

On his way to the Capitol, Caesar is meeting _____, who tries to give him a letter but _____, Caesar's friend, reads the letter's content. The message of the plot is the Tribunes to _____, Marcellus' brother-in-law, asking him to _____, Caesar refuses, then the conspirators gather around him and _____, Caesar's last words are _____.

Fg. 42

The conspirators were together and _____, in Caesar's blood, Caesar's conspirators were ultimately, important thing they just did what Antony's plan was (over-kill) _____, Marcellus' death'll be remembered as _____.

Fg. 82-83

Antony's speech starts out on behalf of Caesar's side _____, Brutus replies by saying the plot over-kill _____, Brutus states Antony will be _____, for Octavius _____, Antony returns and tells the group _____, Brutus replies _____.

Brutus also states that the over-kill thing makes sense but explains why he killed all Caesar even though he loved him. Antony then _____, before having a speech thought and feeling guilty, describing himself with the masses. Antony says the conspirators was provide him with reasons why _____.

Fgs. 83-84

Antony requests to _____, in front of Caesar's grave his promises, then Caesar's words his words about it because _____, Brutus ultimately decides _____, Caesar's response is _____.