

Name: _____

My School Report

Think about your school. What are some things you like about it? Who are some people that make it cool? What are some things you would like to change?

Remember that to write the best responses, the first sentence of a paragraph is very important. It's the best place to get the reader's attention. Use the ideas in the bubbles to help you think of the best sentences to start your paragraphs.
