

Meet the Newt

Read.

Newts are animals that live in the water. They swim by moving their tails and bodies from side to side. Newts eat slugs, snails, and insects. Some newts move to land for two or three years. Then they go back to the water.

Look back at what you have read.
Complete each sentence.

1. The main idea is that newts live in the _____.
2. Newts use their _____ to swim.
3. Newts eat slugs, snails, and _____.
4. Some newts spend two or three years on _____.
5. Some newts leave the land and go back to the _____.

Bonus Box: On the back of this sheet, draw a picture of a newt swimming. Write a sentence about it.