

EN 100 TO 100 ON PAGE 1

The Pilgrims to an American celebration which takes place each year the North Atlantic November 23 celebrate the American people the Pilgrims, religious refugees who came England 1620. They arrived place that is now Plymouth, Massachusetts, where the Wampanoag Indians lived. The Indians helped the Pilgrims grow plants like corn and pumpkins and had turkey service. This is why October 10th, Thanksgiving for the Wampanoag Pilgrims are "Thank you".

EN 100 TO 100 ON PAGE 1

The Pilgrims to an American celebration which takes place each year the North Atlantic November 23 celebrate the American people the Pilgrims, religious refugees who came England 1620. They arrived place that is now Plymouth, Massachusetts, where the Wampanoag Indians lived. The Indians helped the Pilgrims grow plants like corn and pumpkins and had turkey service. This is why October 10th, Thanksgiving for the Wampanoag Pilgrims are "Thank you".

EN 100 TO 100 ON PAGE 1

The Pilgrims to an American celebration which takes place each year the North Atlantic November 23 celebrate the American people the Pilgrims, religious refugees who came England 1620. They arrived place that is now Plymouth, Massachusetts, where the Wampanoag Indians lived. The Indians helped the Pilgrims grow plants like corn and pumpkins and had turkey service. This is why October 10th, Thanksgiving for the Wampanoag Pilgrims are "Thank you".

