

Study Skills Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. Different people learn in different ways. Auditory, visual and tactile are three examples of different ____.
4. Using flash cards or using mnemonic devices are ways to improve your ____.
6. Dictionaries, encyclopedias and atlases belong to the ____ section of the library.
7. ____ involves writing down what you will do and when you will do it in order to achieve things that are important to you.
10. Writing down key information in an organized way is an example of ____.
11. Remembering and understanding what you read is an example of reading ____.
12. ____ can happen when someone is not properly prepared for an exam.
13. A ____ is formed when students gather on a regular basis to work on a school subject.

Down

2. Deciding when and how long to study and do other activities is an example of ____.
3. ____ skills are important for strong essays or research papers.
5. Doing everything at the last minute is called ____.
6. ____ skills are needed when using books to find answers to questions.
8. Knowing what your internal or external ____ is can help you stay on track with challenging tasks.
9. ____ to someone giving directions and then asking questions for clarification can make it easier to complete tasks.