

Writing a Letter to the Editor

Elements :

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Body :

- There should be _____ main ideas
- Each paragraph should _____ main idea
- Use _____
- Illustrate with _____ and _____
- Include a _____ argument if possible.

Topic Sentences + Reasons + Examples

	Hong Kong has the highest road traffic density in the world, and there are thousands of idling cars which bring negative impact on the air quality.
	It is possible that there are going to be repercussions.
	Sometimes, if you know that idling a vehicle for as little as 10 minutes a day consumes an average of 100 liters of petrol a year, you may change your thoughts.
	To help the environment, a law should be passed to force drivers to turn off idling engines. If they don't, they have to pay a fine.
	Some people may think it is a waste of petrol if we turn the engine on and off all the time.
	Vehicle are the second largest source of air pollution in Hong Kong. It is time to address the problem of idling engines.
	In fact, turning off idling engines can save not only fuel, but also money.
	It has been estimated that American drivers unnecessarily consume over 2 billion gallons of fuel each year while idling.