

Describe your main character's personality.

List at least two pieces of evidence (quote or paraphrase) from the book that support how you described your main character's personality. Don't forget to include the page number(s) you found your evidence on.

1) _____

2) _____

Describe how your main character changes or what they learn by the end of the book.

Describe what you think the author's theme/message/lesson is.

What would you say if you were recommending this book to a friend?
