

1. Give examples of:
 - a) Three things that would be against your conscience.
 - b) Three opinions that are characteristic for common sight.
 - c) Three things that you could discard of in your life.
 - d) A situation when you followed your gut instinct.
 - e) An ambition that is your top priority.
 - f) Give a summary of a book you've last read.

2. What does it mean if ...
 - a) you draw the line?
 - b) your friend brings out the worst in you?
 - c) you play God?
 - d) you keep an eye on someone?
 - e) a teacher meets a commitment?
 - f) moan about your homework?

3. Give advices to people who... (include past)
 - a) have had grades in French
 - b) doesn't have a work
 - c) wants to go to the cinema but has classes at that time
 - d) goes to London but doesn't know the city

4. Agree or disagree. So do I / Neither do I.
 - a) I think we should have a party on Friday.
 - b) Sheila doesn't approve of Tom's habit of smoking.
 - c) We're pretty bored of this lecture.
 - d) I can't afford such distraction during the working hours.
 - e) You have to face the consequences of being so rude.
 - f) After squash match I felt exhausted.
 - g) I have had this gut feeling for some time now.
 - h) Bill can share his past experiences with us.
 - i) I was never in two minds about this problem.
 - j) Frank can't see the both sides of the argument.

5. You're organising a Halloween party for your classmates..
 - i sit a Thecm party?
 - can they bring any friends from outsider?
 - when and where will the party take place?