

Name: _____
Teacher: _____
Subject: _____
Date: _____

Conflict Notes & Practices:

Man vs. Man, Man vs. Nature, Man vs. Self

Categories of Conflict:

External

Character opposing an outside force!

Man vs. Nature: the character is opposing a force of nature (e.g. a storm)

Man vs. Man: the characters are opposing one another (e.g. a war)

Internal

Character struggling with a conflict from within

Man vs. Self: the character is struggling with an internal dilemma (e.g. moral). There is no clear right or wrong, good or evil. The character must make a difficult decision.

However, the character will grow and develop as a result of the conflict.

Directions: Use your notes when answering the following questions. Be sure to work collaboratively in your partner!

MAN VS. NATURE is a character opposing the forces of nature.

Place three distinct active forces of Nature a character might struggle against:

- _____
- _____
- _____

Against each distinct force, why can't a human easily defeat Nature?

In what ways, if any, does a person overcome Nature?

List three unique narrative or traits that can help a person in a conflict with Nature.

- _____
- _____
- _____